To Advertisers.—The VERMONT DAILY TRANSCRIPT has the largest circulation in St. Albans and in Franklin County, of any daily paper, and is on that account, if no other, the best medium for advertising.

Local Items.

OUR DAILY.—Those wishing to secure copies of our daily paper can do so at Merrillfield's and Baker's bookstores, as well as at carriers, and at the office. Copies of our weekly paper may also be had at these places.

BUTTER MARKET.—The prices of butter to-day ranged from 45c. to 47c. per pound. A few extra lots, we learn, brought ten cents more. The amount brought to town was not large, owing, we presume, to the bad condition of the roads.

BRIEFS.—The Good Templars' Convention which is to be held at St. Albans on the 13th inst., promises to be an interesting occasion. Rev. H. P. Cushing is announced to be present and deliver an address in the evening.

"Reserve your orders." That is what Mr. G. W. Whitlock, of Burlington, wishes those who are intending to purchase fruit trees, vines, ornamental trees, &c., to do. He is confident that they will save money by so doing. Read his advertisement in another column.

Messrs. Goldsmith and Seavey do an extensive insurance business. They are reliable and obliging gentlemen and deserve the success they are meeting with. Their office is in Gadscomb's Building, North Main Street.

Are any of the readers of the TRANSCRIPT in want of hay? If so, address P. H. & F. W. Myers, Rouse's Point, N. Y. They have quite a large quantity for sale.

The individual who "lifted" a gold pen and case from the editorial table of the TRANSCRIPT Office did a very mean thing, and doubtless his conscience has often told him so. It was not Stealing, O, no; that is too harsh a word to apply to the taking of such a small article, without leave. "Lifter," return that pen! We want it to write dunning letters with.

Mr. Jones' loss by the burning of his building on Edward Street, Sunday morning, is about $2,000. The house was fortunately insured for $1,300, in companies represented by Myron Buck, Esq., of this village.

Gov. Page's Proclamation for Thanksgiving makes death for numerous turkeys, chickens, and other fowls that will be eaten on that day. The person who sends us a turkey—a twelve pounder or more—may rest assured that the gift will not be refused. It will be accepted with numerous, thank you's.

Messrs. Greene and Nichols, Lake Street, always keep on hand a full supply of drugs, medicines, perfumery, &c. Both gentlemen thoroughly understand the business in which they are engaged, and we are glad to know that the Lake Street Drug Store is a success beyond even the expectations of its obliging proprietors.

A correspondent asks us how much majority Grant and Colfax have in Massachusetts. Seventy-six thousand or thereabouts. Isn't that enough for all practical purposes?

The United States Life and Casualty Insurance Company assert that it offers all the advantages of other Life Insurance Companies with many entirely new and important features. Mr. C. W. Buck, of St. Albans, is agent for Northern Vermont and will give persons calling on him all the necessary information concerning the company.

The Good Templars meet on Wednesday evening, this week, instead of Friday as usual, on account of the convention advertised to take place on that evening.

Vermont Editors' and Publishers' Association.

A meeting of the Vermont Editors' and Publishers' Association will be held at the State House, in Montpelier, on Friday evening, Nov. 13, 1868, at 7 o'clock. P. M. A full attendance is requested.

By order of the Executive Com.

HENRY CLARK,
Corresponding Secretary.
D. M. CAMP,
Recording Secretary.
Montpelier, Nov. 6, 1868.

COCK FIGHTS.—Supplementary to the elections, we understand that there was a "cock fight" in St. Albans on Monday, between two Democratic roosters for $300, a side. It is said that the most conservative bird was victorious; this is bad.

NABBY delivered his celebrated lecture, "Cussed be Canaan," in Rutland, Saturday evening, and in Montpelier, Monday evening. This evening he delivered the third lecture of the Parker Fraternity Course, in Music Hall, Boston.

BEECHER'S SERMONS IN THE "CHURCH UNION."—Many papers having announced that these sermons would not be printed in the Church Union, we take pleasure in stating that the sermons of this preacher do appear in every issue of this paper, and that they are to be printed hereafter at twelve o'clock on Monday, getting the sermon of Sunday out on the next day. We understand the publisher of the Church Union promises to print Mr. Beecher's sermons so long as they are acceptable to the Church, and requests all other papers to publish them from his own pages freely.

If our friends want a wide-awake religious paper, unsectarian, and full of interesting matter, the largest and most catholic paper in the world, let them send to Henry E. Child, 41 Park Row, for a copy of this paper, enclosing 10 cents.

THE MISSING MAN.—It would seem from the following "local" which we find in the Detroit Free Press of Nov. 2nd that Mr. Knight Bannister has passed that way.

CONFIDENCE.—Knight Bannister, a gentleman full of years and experience who resides in Bakersfield Vermont, arrived in town yesterday en route to Portage Lake, where he contemplates spending the coming winter. On the train between Windsor and Chatham, Bannister fell in with the ubiquitous "tall man with dark whiskers" who confided him, to the extent of $150, by the friendly aid of Merrill block and a confederate.

Mr. Mark Bannister of Richmond, a brother of Knight Bannister, received a copy of the paper containing the foregoing item, on Saturday, and on Monday evening he left on the express train for Detroit, in search of the missing man.

PORTLAND AND RUTLAND RAILROAD.—The Town of Tamworth, N. H., on the 3d inst., voted to take 5 per cent. of the valuation of the town in the stock of the New Hampshire Central Railroad, by a vote of 193 to 27. Moultonboro' voted 5 per cent. on the same day, with only three dissenting votes.

COMPLETED.—The new building for the Graded School in Waterville is nearly completed, and will be ready for occupancy soon.

THE GREAT WHEELBARROW FEAT.—On Saturday night last, Capt. John Loneragan performed his feat of wheeling a barrel of apples around the City Hall square and to the Lake House, in fulfillment of a wager on the result of the election, with Mr. S. C. Crombie. At the appointed hour for the commencement of the performance, 7:30 p. m., a drum corps, with Capt. Peck's section of artillery, bearing torches, made their appearance on the west front of the City Hall, and from there proceeded to the residence of Capt. Loneragan, and did escort duty for him thence to the park, where a procession was formed, headed by the drum corps, following which was the Captain, wheelbarrow, and apples, and immediately behind him "Judge" Crombie, who, mounted on a mule, kindly loaned for the occasion by Mr. L. S. Drew, of South Burlington, acted as marshal of the evening, while on either side were Capt. Peck's artillerymen, and behind a large number of citizens who had congregated to witness the doings. From the park the company proceeded to the Lake House, where Mr. Loneragan delivered the apples to Mr. Crombie in a speech especially suited to the occasion, after which the barrel was opened and the crowd inverted to partake thereof, an invitation, judging from the short space in which it took the apples to disappear, which was accepted of nearly. A number of invited guests then retired to the reading room of the hotel, where a handsome collation was provided by the victor, and with song and sentiment, indulged in by Messrs. Eaton, of the Sentinel, Bigelow of the Times, Mayor Ballou, P. R. Downer, and others, a cheerful hour was spent, when the party retired, wishing, undoubtedly, that Presidential elections would come oftener, providing Messrs. Crombie and Loneragan were to make wagers on the result similar to that which furnished such merriment on Saturday night.—Burlington Times.

Bills Introduced and referred.—By Mr. Heath, to pay Herace and Cyrus Brailey, the sum therein named; to committee on claims.
 S. 33, in amendment of Sec. 53, Chap. 22, Gen. Statutes, (relating to school districts); returned from the House with proposals of amendment, which were concurred in.

HOUSE.

Joint Resolution.—By Mr. Brigham, of Hyde Park, as follows:
 Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives, That it is expedient in order to retain a more permanent, uniform and economical administration of the government of the State of Vermont, to amend the Constitution so as to require only biennial sessions of the General Assembly, and biennial elections of all State, County and Judicial officers.
 Referred to select committee of five members of this House.
 Bills read the Third time.—H. 199, to incorporate the St. Albans, Plattsburgh and Grand Isle Ferry Co.; passed.
 H. 172, to incorporate the Berkshire Vermont Phoenix Spring Co.; passed.

SENATE.

AFTERNOON.

BILLS PASSED.

H. 88, incorporating the Society of St. John the Baptist.

HOUSE BILL REFERRED.

172, incorporating the Berkshire Vermont Spring Co.; to general committee.
 119, incorporating St. Albans, Plattsburgh and Grand Isle Ferry Co.; to committee on highways and bridges.

HOUSE.

AFTERNOON.

REPORTS.

From committee on railroads, in favor of H. 133, to incorporate the Bennington & Wilmington R. R. Co., with amendment changing the name of the road to Bennington and Deerfield Valley R. R. Co., and charging one of the commissioners to receive subscriptions to capital stock, which were agreed to; third reading ordered.

SPECIAL ORDERS.

The joint resolution providing for a hydrographic survey and manufacturing statistics of the State.

Mr. Park, of Bennington, moved to amend so as to provide for the printing of 1,000 copies of the statistics when compiled by the Secretary of State.

Mr. Hoyt, of Westfield, moved to amend so as to have printed 3,000 copies, which was accepted by Mr. Park, and adopted.

The resolution was then adopted.
 H. 124, to amend sec. 1 of an act to encourage the breeding of fish; third reading ordered.

Mr. Pingree, of Weathersfield, called up S. 19, relating to chattel mortgages, the question being on the amendment proposed by Mr. Fisher, that no mortgage of personal property shall be valid without the consent of the wife in writing.

Mr. Fisher, of Westminster, opposed the amendment and was opposed to the bill.
 Mr. Miner, of Manchester, concurred with Mr. Fisher in his remarks. He was opposed to the bill, as was Mr. Hunt of St. Albans.

Mr. Fisher of Westminster, by unanimous consent, withdrew; is proposed amendment of Mr. Pingree of Weathersfield, which he immediately renewed.

Mr. Cristy of Johnson, said the legislature has exempted a large class of property from attachment—not less than $1,000,—and we have thereby very much restricted the credit of men of small means. He thought if we would adopt this amendment and then pass the bill, thereby giving the man the means to raise money on mortgage of personal property, by and with the consent of the wife in writing.

Mr. Hunt of St. Albans, very forcibly opposed not only the amendment, but the original bill, as an outrage upon justice.

We have already exempted from $1,000 to $2,500 from attachment, but mean more than that if we go into Addison County and purchase ten sheep. He said he knew enough of married life to know that the consent of the wife could be obtained at any time. He was opposed to the whole thing.

Mr. Pingree of Weathersfield favored the amendment and the bill.

Mr. Hunt further opposed a bill saying it favors the mere money lender, whom he detested. He respected the man of wealth as such, but he stigmatized as scavengers the mere money lender. And this bill opens the doors to give this class another chance at the personal property. He hoped it would not be passed.

The amendment proposed by Mr. Pingree was then agreed to; yeas 99 nays 34.

Mr. Converse of Woodstock, said he was opposed to the bill in committee, and that in addition to the objections named by the gentleman from Groton, it would work bad for the purchaser as well as the seller.

Mr. Park of Bennington said if we are to have a general mortgage law we should define what classes of property it should apply to. Certain classes of personal property, it might do to allow to be mortgaged such as is stationary, and not liable to be made use of to defraud honest purchasers and mortgagees.

the statutes, he thought, now cover all that is necessary.
 Mr. Miner of Manchester, said the law would prove a clog on the business of the State, and hoped it would not be passed.
 The passage of the bill was then unanimously refused.
 On motion of Mr. Wright of Bradford, adjourned.

FULTON MARKET.—Just received, a nice lot Dried Beef, Sugar Cured Hams, Bologna Sausage, Sweet Potatoes, Tomatoes, Peas, Peaches, Water Melons and Musk Melons.
